

For you to keep up in your new class in September, let me remind you that it is of the utmost importance that you should be on the lookout for information on the English-speaking world:

- keep yourself informed by reading the press - magazines and newspapers - also available on websites such as <http://www.guardian.co.uk>, <http://www.independent.co.uk>, <http://www.economist.com>, <http://www.nytimes.com>, <http://www.washingtonpost.com>, or <http://www.huffingtonpost.com/?country=US> (US edition) or <http://www.huffingtonpost.co.uk/> (UK edition), and <http://www.slate.com/>
- if you can, watch satellite TV, or on the Internet, watch the news in English as often as possible, for example <https://www.bbc.com/news> or <https://edition.cnn.com>. Remember that most newspaper websites now have video sections which are worth watching too. Listen to the radio: an app like simple radio will provide radio 4 (GB) or NPR (US) for example.
- whenever you go to the cinema or watch a DVD, go for the original version instead of the dubbed one.
- read contemporary novels or short-stories, you'll be surprised how much pleasure you will take in doing so!

Practice makes perfect! Provided you keep up your English, you will find it all the easier to get down to work in two months' time.

HOMEWORK for September

Consolidate what you already know by revising your vocabulary, and reading the books in your bibliography, or reading them again, if you had already done so.

Improve your English grammar using the app entitled Mémo anglais B2-C1, and when you make a mistake or need to be reminded of the rule, look it up in the booklet entitled Mémo anglais B2-C1 (classes prépas/ens. supérieur).

Revise all the work done in the first year, more particularly since the beginning of the lockdown.
